

ACA ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND EXPO

The American Counseling Association’s Annual Conference and Expo provided in-depth education sessions on issues related to the counseling profession for more than 3,100 attendees. Actress Ashley Judd (pictured right) was the opening keynote speaker at the conference, held in Cincinnati, March 21-24. She spoke of her experience with depression and codependency, and how treatment changed her life. Dr. Allen Ivey, a leading expert in neuroscience, spoke on the changes effective counseling can have on brain functions.

NAACO ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The North American Association of Commencement Officers held its annual conference Feb. 17-19, at the Mayflower Renaissance Hotel in Washington, D.C. Themed “Capitalizing the Commencement Experience,” attendees heard from industry leaders on a plethora of relevant topics to help them continue to provide a memorable commencement and convocation experience to their universities’ graduates.

